There are indisputable benefits of locally-grown produce, the environmentally-friendlier aspects such as decreased transportation costs, fresher food, and keeping food dollars circulating in our local economy.

- CSA farms provide locally grown food that is more sustainable and environmentally friendly than conventional food outlets.
- CSA's can provide a more fresh, potentially more nutritious alternative and safe food source, which leads to more financial satisfaction.
- CSA's can provide more value as the produce often lasts longer than that which is trucked in and sometimes picked before achieving optimal maturity/flavor.

Cost : $35 including lunch
